Sue Koppa resigns as parks coordinator

• May go into business here

By BEVERLY CARY

Village clerk Marilyn Sterbenz, at Monday's village board meeting, read a letter from Susan Koppa, who is resigning her position as parks and recreation coordinator.

Mrs. Koppa, who has served the village for five and one-half years, said she is leaving for personal reasons.

The board moved to accept her resignation, effective Dec. 1.

MRS. KOPPA SAID Tuesday that she and her husband, Jim, are considering going into business in the Antioch area.

Mrs. Koppa, 28, is a lifelong resident of Antioch and graduated from Carmel High School for Girls in Mundelein. She then attended Northern Illinois University in DeKalb and graduated in 1973 with a degree in psychology.

In June of 1973 she joined the Antioch Police Department and soon was named community relations officer.

In 1974 she started a girls softball league for the village and township and then further enlarged the recreational

Bike-A-Thon winners receive their prizes

A total of 74 energetic bicycle riders participated Oct. 2 in the seventh annual Bike-A-Thon here.

They were pedaling around a seven-mile route to raise money for the American Cancer Society.

Each rider had pledges from businessmen, family or friends for a certain amount of money for each mile they rode.

NOW THAT THE money has been collected, it has been announced that the nine Bike-A-Thon routes in Lake County realized contributions from hundreds of sponsors for a total of more than $32,000.

Proceeds from the Antioch route were $5,734 as of this week.

Top riders were honored at an awards dinner last Friday at McDonald's restaurant in Waukegan.

THE FIRST-PRIZE winner in the Antioch area was Sean O'Connell, who raised $1,029.75. He received a 10-speed bike from the State Bank of Antioch. (Photo at left).

PRES RECKERS, CHAIRMAN of the event and vice president of the State Bank of Antioch, this week reminded all riders who participated in the Bike-A-Thon, and have not yet turned in their money, that sponsor donations are still being accepted at the State Bank.

All money raised in the annual bike riding event will be used in the American Cancer Society's programs of research, education and service to the cancer patient and his family.

Statistics tell story in high school football

Individual statistics from the recent Antioch High School football season reflect what most fans knew:

The Sequoias had a well-balanced, devastating ground attack. Four different ball-carriers gained more than 262 yards rushing.

That possibly is the kind of attack fans can expect to see here in future football seasons as new varsity coach Steve Wapon tries to "establish a ground game" as the Sequoias take on each opponent.

THEY DID THAT successfully during the 1978 season. Mitch Case, a junior who will be back next year, finished with 370 yards rushing in 91 carries for a 4.1 average.

Denis Flaschner, also a junior, gained 311 yards at a 4.3 clip while seniors Greg Bodin and Dwayne Buszta totalled

FIRST PRIZE WINNER in Antioch's annual American Cancer Society Bike-A-Thon was Sean O'Connell, shown receiving a new 10-speed bike from Preston J. Reckers (right), chairman of the event and vice president of the State Bank of Antioch. At left is John Burnett, who rode in the Bike-A-Thon on behalf of the Antioch Jaycees. By amazing coincidence, Sean and the Jaycees each raised exactly $1,029.75 for the fight against cancer. The Jaycees, however, settled for a small trophy instead of the bike. ## Tips for mailing holiday packages

Some last-minute packaging pointers to make sure your Christmas gifts have a safe trip to their destination were issued by Antioch Postmaster Wayne C. Van Heirsele.

"Poorly-wrapped packages may be turned back to the sender at the post office," Postmaster Van Heirsele said, "and the window clerk will point out the deficiencies and suggest how they may be corrected."

To make sure the parcels are properly wrapped in the first place to avoid delay and inconvenience, here are some suggestions:

The best protection is a fiberboard container with enough cushioning inside to keep the contents from shifting and to protect them from bumps. Usually, if the box is strong enough, an outer wrapper isn't needed. If you do use a wrapper, it should be at least as strong as a grocery bag.

Cord or string are not recommended. For closing and reinforcing the parcel self-sticking filament-reinforced tape is best.

As an added precaution, include both destination and return address inside the parcel. Make sure the address on the outside is legible and complete with Zip Code, and that there is sufficient postage.

Packages with easily broken contents should be marked Fragile; foods should be marked Perishable.

Complete details are in a free "Packaging Pointers" pamphlet available at the post office.

Commentary

The tragedy of Guyana was discussed in "The Millburn Messenger," an interesting publication distributed to members of the Millburn Congregational Church.

We'd like to pass along his comments, and we trust Pastor D.A. McPeck won't mind. Here is what he had to say:

"A THOUGHT ABOUT GUYANA. I have always thought that one of the great weaknesses of American Protestantism in particular, is the following individual clergypersons build up. It is, for instance, well known among clergypersons that whenever they do on vacation and there is to be a guest minister the people don't know, attendance will fall usually from 20 to 50 percent. Few Protestant's will stop on a Sunday morning when on vacation and worship in a strange church, where they don't know the minister. As people become close to or comfortable with a certain minister, they can't imagine being married by anyone else, or having anyone else baptize their baby.

Don't get me wrong. I wish to be well liked as anyone. But I am only the deliverer of the message of God's love, and God's salvation offered in Jesus Christ. I deliver that message better than some, worse than others. God's love is the same whether I baptize the baby of people close to me in the congregation, or a stranger does it. I may not seem as warm if done by a stranger, but the result is the same.

The cult type of allegiance prevalent in all churches in one degree or another, reached a dreadful consequence with Jim Jones. He personally became so popular with members of his church that both the church members and their ministers started to get confused about his role. They both began to assume that he was not the story teller, telling the old and new story of God's love, but in their mind and his mind he became the Messianic carrier of the message. Once he assumed the role of God, it was, psychiatrists tell us, a short step to a feeling of paranoia - a feeling that the principalities and powers of the world were after him.

In all things we need balance. We come to church to worship and serve God. Sometimes the minister helps us focus well on God. Sometimes less well. But always the focus should be on God. Never the minister.

the Pfarr Corner

8-year-old surprised his backers

By JERRY PFARR

Sean O'Connell, only 8 years old, rode his bike 35 miles in the annual Cancer Society Bike-A-Thon held here in October.

In advance, Sean had received pledges from businessmen, family and friends amounting to about $30 for each mile he rode. So, he raised more than $1,000 for the fight against cancer and won a new 10-speed bike.

The day of the Bike-A-Thon, his mother, Georgeann, was surprised.

"I thought Sean would be lucky to make it around the seven-mile route once," she laughed.

His father, Dennis, had a humorous story the other day when Sean received his first-prize bike.

"Bernie Gunty was one of his sponsors," Dennis said, "and the Bike-A-Thon route goes down North Ave., right past Bernie's delicatessen.

"Bernie saw Sean ride past once, then later saw him ride past again. Then, sometime later, there was Sean going around the route a third time.

"I was thinking, one more time and I'm going to shoot the air out of his tires," Dennis quoted Bernie as saying.

IF YOU ARE PLANNING to build a wooden sidewalk in Antioch, you will be violating the law if the planks or boards are not made of sound, undressed pine or hemlock ... not less than eight nor more than 12 inches wide.

Also, the boards must be laid in a straight line and be uniformly level, not to mention "no more than one-fourth inch apart."

That law was probably passed here in 1896, suspects Marilyn Sterbenz, village clerk.

MARILYN ALSO TOLD us that there is an old Antioch ordinance that prohibits horse racing, bicycle racing, chicken or dog fighting, or any other boisterous sport on Sunday.

"But only on Sunday," Marilyn laughed. "I guess it's okay on Saturday."

Speaking of old laws:

—In Corpus Christi, Texas, it's illegal to raise alligators in your home.

—In Arkansas, it's illegal to mispronounce the name of the state. (It's a good thing we don't have that law in Illi-noise.)

—In Tennessee, it's illegal to drive a car while asleep.

—And in Elkhart, Ind., it is illegal for a barber to threaten to cut off a youngster's ears.

That comes as a surprise, because we didn't know youngsters had ears.

Antioch man injured when car rams tree

An Antioch man was listed in guarded condition during the weekend after a traffic accident Friday.

The man is Jerome J. Zielinski, 29, of rural Antioch, who was taken to Victory Memorial Hospital, Waukegan. Muttschall said Zielinski suffered facial, head and internal injuries.

A passing motorist found Zielinski, Muttschall said. Special equipment was used by the rescue squad to extricate Zielinski.

There apparently were not witnesses to the accident.

License plates on their way

Illinois motorists began displaying their new multi-year blue and white license plates. Secretary of State Alan J. Dixon said that the plates are being sold over-the-counter at banks, savings and loan associations and currency exchanges as well as Secretary of State facilities in Springfield and Chicago. In Antioch plates can be purchased at the State Bank.

The new plates, with validating stickers, are designed to last for at least five years under the new multi-year, staggered registration program instituted by Secretary Dixon. It is estimated that the program will save Illinois $21 million, mostly in plate manufacturing costs.

Secretary Dixon reminded Illinois motorists that the new license plate package, whether purchased over-the-counter or by mail from Springfield, will include a small sticker in a plastic bag attached to the back of the vehicle identification card.

"The blue 1979 sticker for those motorists who purchased the short option (less than one year's validation) goes in the upper lefthand corner of the license plate that is attached to the rear of the automobile," Secretary Dixon said.

"The red 1980 sticker given to motorists who purchased the long option (validation for more than one year) goes in the upper righthand corner of the plate, covering the '79," Dixon said. After 1980, stickers will be purchased annually at the regular fee of $18 or $30.

WHILE ALMOST HALF of the plates purchased by Illinois motorists will be dispensed over the counter, many persons have requested that their 1978 numbers be reassigned and others have requested special numbers. Such transactions must be carried out by mail through the Springfield offices with motorists being required to send in their applications and fees prior to Sept. 30.

"As a result of our desire to fulfill every motorist's request as near as possible — because the plates will be on cars for at least five years — our office has been swamped," Dixon said. "We received 325,000 additional special requests for plates, 1.7 million compared to 1.4 million last year."

"Our workers in Springfield are going night and day to put license plates in the mail so they may be delivered to the public by the deadline," Dixon said. "The pace is slowed by the necessity of manually placing stickers on the back of the identification cards. As of today, we have mailed 738,504 pairs of plates. This time last year, we had mailed slightly more than one million," Dixon said.

Every Illinois motorist who ordered license plates within a reasonable time frame for delivery will receive plates before any deadline is imposed," Dixon said.

THIRD PRIZE WINNER — John Higgins receives his prize, a bicycle from Jack Siegmeier of Four Squires clothing store.

John collected $396.88 for the fight against cancer. He was one of 74 riders in the Oct. 2 Bike-A-Thon.

Firemen present 'EDITH' program in local schools

"Home Safe Home" is the theme of a program presented by the Antioch Fire Department and McDonald's Corporation in cooperation with area elementary schools.

Antioch Fire Prevention Bureau members Capt. James Quedenfeld, Wayne Parthun, Kevin Kelly and Paul Maplethorpe, along with McDonald's Community Representative JoAnn Catanzaro, are visiting local grade schools to present the E.D.I.T.H. (Exit Drills In The Home) program developed by McDonald's Corporation.

The E.D.I.T.H. program was presented recently to children in grades 1-5 at St. Peter's School and Faith Lutheran School. Worksheets for developing escape routes from sleeping and living areas in the home were given to the children. When the completed worksheet is checked by the teacher, the child is given a certificate for a free cheeseburger at McDonald's.

By the end of the school year, the group will have visited each elementary school in the township.

'Oversize mail' will cost more

New minimum-size mail standards will go into effect in March or April, the Postal Service said Tuesday.

The same effective date will be used to implement a surcharge for oversized mail, a matter now pending before the postal rate commission.

The Postal Service's board of governors established the timetable for the common implementation date.

Currently, the independent postal rate commission is considering the Postal Service's proposal for the 13-cent surcharge for oversized mail and has until Feb. 25 to act on it.

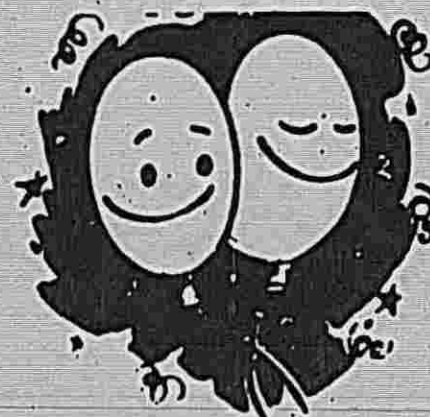

Assuming such action around that date, the board of governors would consider setting the specific implementation date at its March meeting.

THE MINIMUM-SIZE standards, which apply to all classes of mail, establish that envelopes and cards measuring less than 3½ inches high or 5 inches long, and certain other items that can jam machinery and damage other mail will not be accepted.

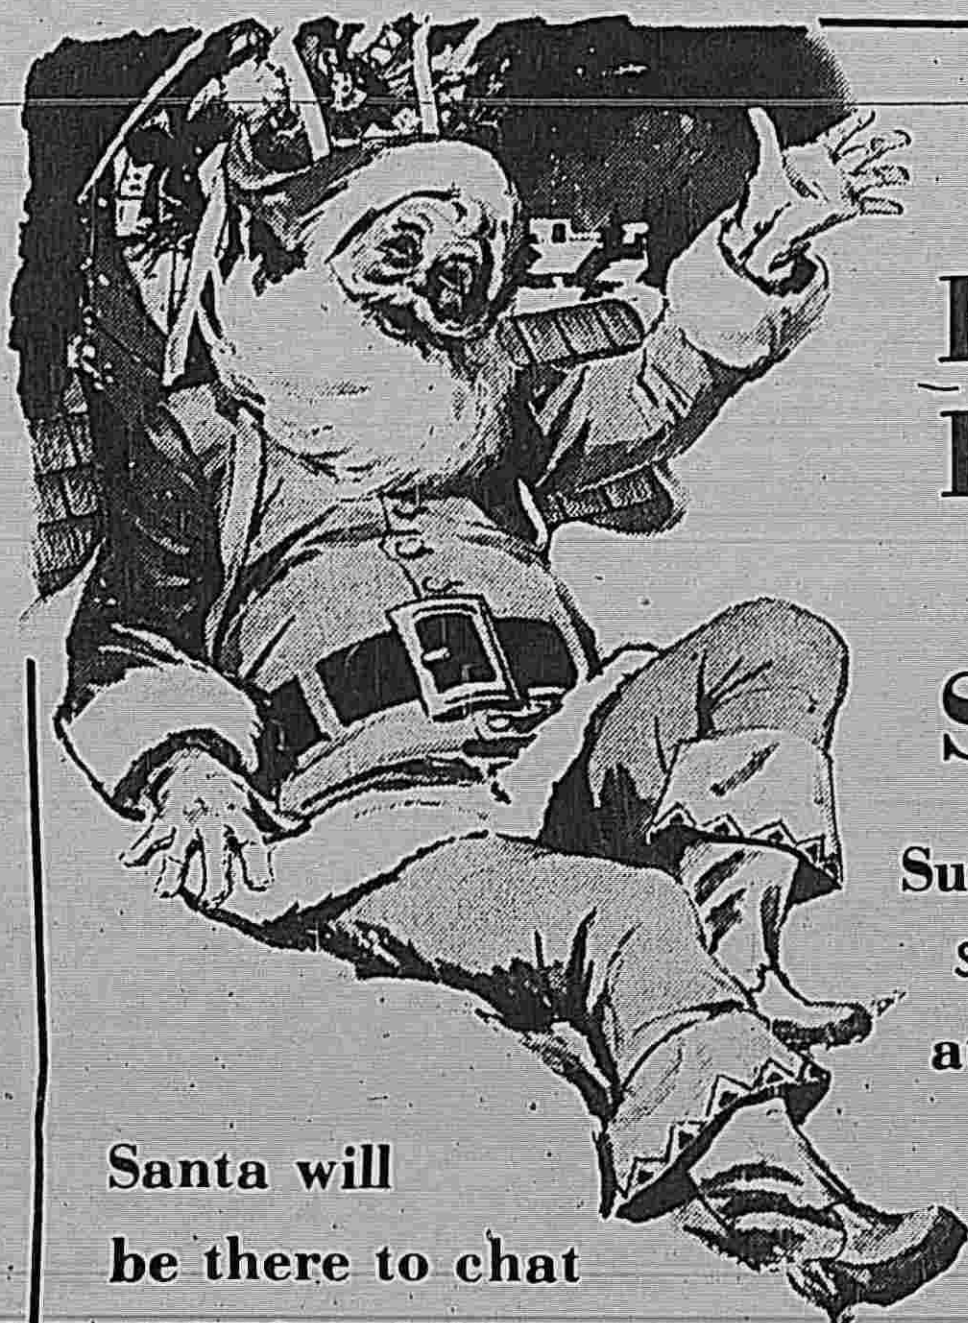

Also, the new requirements call for a thickness of at least .007 of an inch. Postcards have a thickness of .009 of an inch.

The new standards allow that mail to be accepted, but to be subject to the surcharge under consideration by the postal rate commission.

Blood pressure clinic at Library

A free blood pressure screening clinic will be conducted by the Lake County Health Department on Wednesday, Dec. 13 at the Antioch Public Library, 757 Main Street, Antioch, from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. All adults are welcome. No appointment is necessary.

Illinois had a bitter, cold Christmas in 1878

(Special from the Illinois State Historical Society)

Illinoisans struggled through a bitter cold Christmas Day 100 years ago.

Snow drifts stopped some trains while others were delayed three or four hours on short runs. There were few pedestrians on the streets but sleigh riders had a ball.

IT WAS "a home day" and even the churches suffered a loss of attendance.

And "the saloons, almost the only places of business kept open, were deserted," according to the Chicago Inter Ocean newspaper.

SLEIGH RIDING was not always fun, as the Springfield State Register reported:

"Mr. W.E. Smith started from the state house in a sleigh to which was attached a usually slow-going old nag ... the animal became frightened at something and started for a

How to achieve

EASY RETIREMENT

An IRA or KEOGH Retirement Plan at Antioch Savings

Now there is a way to achieve the kind of "Easy Retirement" that we all look forward to. If you do not participate in a retirement plan where you work, you can start your own retirement plan at Antioch Savings. Each year you may contribute to your plan and defer paying income tax on 15% of your income or $1500, whichever is less. Your entire savings contribution is a tax deduction that year. You pay no tax on your pension funds or the interest that they earn until you retire. At that time, you will most likely be in a lower tax bracket. If you have a non-working spouse, your contribution can be increased to $1750 per year. If you are self employed, you are eligible to contribute up to $7500 or 15% of your income, whichever is less. Whatever your situation, look how fast that adds up.

ANNUAL DEPOSIT	$1500	$1750	$7500
After 10 Years	$24,073	$28,085	$118,504
After 20 Years	$78,243	$91,283	$378,489
After 30 Years	$200,135	$233,491	$948,868

Based on our current 8% annual interest and certificate term of 8 years. Rates can not be guaranteed past the initial term selected or any renewal period.

Now is the time to open your retirement plan or make a contribution to your existing plan to achieve tax benefits on your 1978 income tax return. If you are already in a company sponsored plan, you can transfer that plan to Antioch Savings when you leave the company or when that plan is cancelled. Within 60 days from the date that you become eligible to receive those funds from your employer, you can open your "IRA Rollover" account at Antioch Savings and avoid any taxation until your retirement.

Interested in more information? Antioch Savings is hosting a SPECIAL SEMINAR on IRA and Keogh retirement plans on December 14, 1978 at 7 p.m. Call us today at 395-3030 to place your reservation and get details.

If you won't be able to attend, drop in today and discuss your individual needs with our retirement planning counselors. Antioch Savings is now able to offer new, higher interest rates on all plans and there is no fee for this service.

Helping you achieve "Easy Retirement" is just one more way that Antioch Savings is "Making Good Things Happen."

run."

Mr. Smith was thrown out, "his clothing catching in the sleigh and dragging him some distance. He was finally released, however, by the breaking of the sleigh" — no broken bones but "he was severely bruised."

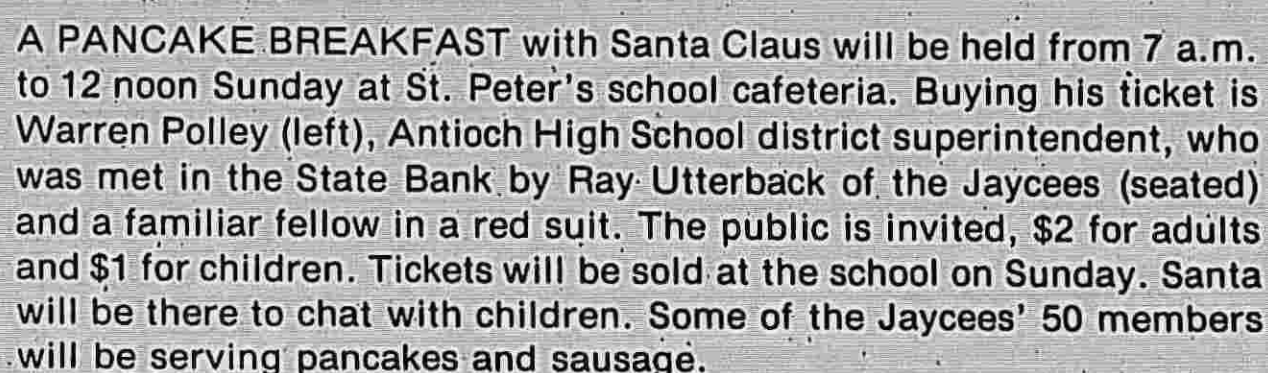

Two Chicago ladies were luckier, they jumped out of their sleigh when the horses started their run-away.

THE STATE Register reported on Dec. 27: "There are numbers of people crossing the Mississippi on the ice (at St. Louis). It is 'tight as a drum' which would preclude all hope of navigation above Cairo — for, well, it may be for months."

The ice men were happy, however, and were harvesting their supplies for the summer — the river had been open to boats all of the previous winter.

How to be a better Santa

For those interested in what goes under the tree more than in what goes on it, a 24-page booklet, entitled "How To Be a Better Santa," is available for the asking from Schaper Manufacturing, a leading maker of more than 40 games, including a series of "Super Jock" sports action games and a variety of miniature Playmobil system little people, three-inch tall figures whose arms and legs move as they become parts of seven different imaginary worlds.

While still with the police department, Mrs. Koppa ran summer recreational programs for the community and then, in May of 1976, was officially named village recreation coordinator.

IN OTHER ACTION at Monday's village meeting, three bids were opened by Mrs. Sterbenz for a new van. They were from Lyons and Ryan, Pedersen Brothers and John Teresi Chevrolet.

Trustee Vern "Barney" Barnstable recommended accepting the lowest bid of $5,549 from Pedersen Brothers. The board agreed and accepted the bid.

Mayor Michael Haley made a motion to appoint Emil Kapischke to the zoning board of appeals to fill a long-running vacancy left by Frank Kuechenmeister. The board approved the appointment.

THE VILLAGE OF Antioch was awarded an energy conservation grant from the Illinois Institute of Natural Resources, in the amount of $9,400.

Antioch was chosen as one of 10 test cities for a project which includes energy audits of village homes.

The federal and state governments have put together a conservation code for individual homes which tell how efficient each home is in conserving energy.

The board appointed Trustees William Seemann, Ronald Cunningham and Don Amundsen as the committee for this project.

Project Director Michael Teeley said, "We are looking for the cooperation and participation of all the citizens to make this project successful."

Add a dash of 'spirit' to your holiday eggnog

At Christmastime, everything has to be the best and very, very special. Because so much effort goes into a successful holiday party, a host or hostess doesn't overlook even the smallest detail.

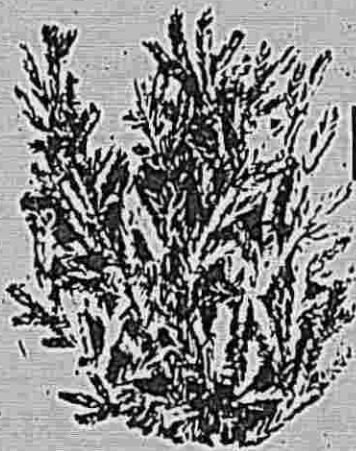

Once the family has finished decorating the perfect tree, and the appropriate gifts are all wrapped and ready—turn your attention to the eggnog! Holiday eggnog can be different and better than ever this year, with a new, "spirited" taste.

To make a spirited, special holiday eggnog, combine one cup of milk and one egg, and beat or shake vigorously. Add one ounce of brandy and one ounce of Liqueur Galliano. Pour into a brandy snifter and chill. Garnish with chocolate curls or chopped nuts before serving.

For punch bowls or groups, simply multiply all recipe ingredients and enjoy!

PM&L play in 2nd weekend

The current PM&L Theatre plan, "Androcles and the Lion," will be presented again this weekend on Friday and Saturday.

Curtain time is 8:30 each night.

The play opened last Saturday to an appreciative audience.

Its run at the theatre on Antioch's Main Street will end Dec. 15 and 16.

Reservations can be made by calling 395-3055. Ticket prices are $3 and $1.

THE CAST INCLUDES Hank Apostol as Androcles, Todd Seisser as the lion and Tracy Teltz Kiederlen as Lavinia.

Bev Palmburg, president of Avon Players, is Megaera and Ken Scheske, of Antioch, is playing Emperor Cesezar.

Martin Domeracki of Antioch, a board member of Avon Players, is the captain. The cast also includes Charlie Brown of Trevor, Steve Buri, Larry Bersie, Don Beyerth, Bob Quinn, Frank Greenwood and Andrew Biel.

Aileen Biel is stage manager, Pat Sershon is in charge of costumes, Ed Sershon and Alex Apostol are on lights and set design is by Bill Sershon, (also the director).

The Christmas season is here and this George Bernard Shaw play is PM&L's gift to the Antioch community.

ANDROCLES AND THE LION is one of Shaw's favorite plays... a whimsical comedy that will be enjoyed by young and old.

Based on Aesops fable of the Lion and the Mouse, this is the tale of the Lion and the tailor, Androcles.

Two seasons ago the Milwaukee Repertory Company had sell-out performances for six weeks to adult audiences. The lead line in their program was ... "A great religious drama with leonine relief."

Tips from Chicago Motor Club

Cold weather is definitely with us, says the Chicago Motor Club, and drivers shouldn't be fooled by brief periods of warm sunshine. Frost can cause a slippery glaze on streets and highways, especially at night and during early morning hours. Special caution is urged when driving on bridges, overpasses and ramps where frost is likely to accumulate this time of year.

Illegal passing is among the most dangerous of traffic violations, the Chicago Motor Club warns. Never pass on hills, curves, at intersections or whenever a solid yellow line is painted on your side of the highway center line. It is important to remember, however, that the absence of a yellow line does not automatically give you the right to pass. If there's any doubt about your ability to pass safely, stay in your own lane.

The Chicago Motor Club cautions drivers to allow for adverse weather conditions when planning winter travel. When snow, freezing rain or ice is present, the sensible driver will reduce his speed according to conditions and will allow himself more time to get to his destination.

Following the vehicle ahead too closely leaves little room for safety, says the Chicago Motor Club. The recommended following distance under ideal driving conditions is one car length for every 10 miles an hour of speed. If roads are slippery, traffic is heavy or visibility is poor, a much greater distance is required for maximum safety.

Jill Levoe was the 1977-78 district tournament's "top individual bowler."

The highest 3-game series is 511 by Janie Jorgensen.

The next meet will be with Round Lake, today.

Emmons is 6-0 in conference

The Emmons Raiders continued their dominance of conference basketball rivals with three more wins.

They completed the first half of conference play with a 6-0 record. The Raiders are 6-1 overall after dropping a 50-41 non-league decision to Oakcrest.

In a conference game against Grass Lake, Emmons rolled to a 76-21 victory.

Four Raiders collected double figures in scoring, led by Frank Mahar with 18.

Todd Wilson, Tim Hartokolis and Steve Haase each had 13 while Luke Kuligowski added 10.

Chris Becker hauled down 7 rebounds as Mahar added 6 to pace the Raiders in that category.

MAHAR AGAIN led Emmons in scoring with 13 points in a 34-19 victory over Spring Grove. Leading only 18-16 after three periods, the Raiders outscored the Eagles 16-3 in the final stanza.

Mahar seized a game-high 12 rebounds.

IN THEIR final game of conference play before the halfway mark, Emmons easily rolled over Prince of Peace 55-21.

Mahar collected 18 points in the first seven minutes of play. When Prince of Peace adjusted its defense to double and triple-team him, he tossed off passes to Hartokolis for 12 points and Haase for 11.

Hartokolis also picked off 14 rebounds and added 4 assists. The Raiders travel to Westfield of Winthrop Harbor today and entertain Newport at home Thursday.

Stock up on holiday 'goodies'

As the holidays roll around, more and more guests, expected and unexpected alike, will be dropping by, and any advance preparation you can make for this enjoyable onslaught will be well worth its investment in time later on.

If you enjoy baking, make sure to keep a stock of home-baked cookies and cakes around. Sweet breads, like carrot cake, zucchini cake and gingerbread, stay well and are excellent after-dinner or mid-afternoon snacks.

Check through your recipes and choose ones that are good for shipping, for cookies and cakes that ship well are most likely to keep.

Also, stock up on whatever beverages you choose to serve. Liquors, liqueurs and wines, as well as soft drinks (carbonated and non-carbonated, so your guests can choose) in both sugar-sweetened and sugar-free varieties, should be included on your pre-holiday shopping list.

Of course, you should be sure to have a supply of coffee and tea, and it might even be a good idea to keep a large percolator in service on days when you are expecting a large number of guests, so you can greet everyone with a warming cup of coffee when they arrive, cold and possibly snow-covered, at your door.

At Christmastime, even more than during the rest of the year, hospitality is the name of the game!

Laura Stewart wins contest for 2nd week

Since we receive nearly 100 entries each week in the Antioch News basketball contest, it comes as quite a surprise when the same person wins two weeks in a row. But that's what Laura Stewart did.

Last week she predicted Grant would beat Antioch by 11 points. Grant won by 12 and Laura will receive a $15 check from Antioch Counseling Services.

Laura had won the previous week, picking Libertyville to defeat Antioch by 17 points, and Libertyville won by 18. For that, she received $15 in cash from Pedersen Bros. Implement Co.

THERE WAS A TIE for second last week, Kelly Geist and Harry Stewart (Laura's son) each forecasting a 14-point win for Grant.

Since Harry came closest in the tie-breaker, the sophomore game, he will receive second prize: a $10 gift

Kelly will receive a $5 gift certificate from the Ben Franklin Family Center.

Another contest appears in today's paper. Be sure to enter by 8 p.m. Friday, when Antioch hosts Grayslake.

Statistics tell story in high school football

307 and 262 yards respectively. Bodin averaged 5.9 a carry and Buszta 3.3.

Another junior, Greg Stevens, picked up 134 yards in 25 carries for a 5.4 average.

Coach Wapon expects Case, Flaschner and Stevens to return to his backfield next season, so opponents are expecting the worst when Antioch launches its running attack.

BECAUSE THE GROUND GAME was so successful, Antioch didn't have to do much passing this season. However, senior quarterback Rob Nauman completed 25 passes for 328 yards and six touchdowns. He averaged 13 yards per completion.

DAN BEHNE, ANOTHER JUNIOR, made quite a reputation for himself as a kicker.

He averaged 34.1 yards on 35 punts but, best of all, he kicked 17 extra points to set a new school record. The old mark was 15 by Mike Sterbenz in 1965.

Behne also led the team in punt returns, with 81 yards in 11 chances. Tim Plett, with 90 yards in six returns, and Gene Lehn, with 86 yards in seven, led the team in kickoff returns.

BEHNE DID THE kicking off for Antioch and had a splendid average of 47.7 yards on 32 boots.

The leading pass receiver, Scott Schroeder, made 12 catches for 156 yards and three touchdowns.

Schroeder was one of four Sequoia's honored in post-season selections. He, plus linebacker Andy Dziki, tackle Mike O'Hara and guard Dave Aschbacher, were all-Northwest Suburban Conference choices and also received honorable mention on the Chicago Sun-Times all-state team.

Two special awards were given to players after each of the last six games.

The "McDonald's Award" went to Darren Houghton, Mitch Case, Scott Schroeder, Rob Nauman, Dave Aschbacher and Greg Stevens.

The "Hustle Award" was won by Houghton, Kirk Sarmont, Mike O'Hara, Greg Bodin, Dan Crichton and Denis Flaschner.

7th graders are winning for Emmons

The Emmons School 7th grade basketball team has opened its season with seven straight convincing victories.

Working behind center John Mahar, the Raiders swept past six conference opponents to complete their first round of conference play.

The Raiders also blitzed non-conference opponent Oak Crest 38-24.

IN WINNING their first six conference games, Emmons' 7th graders were never challenged. They scored 267 points to their opponents' 80, for an average of 44-13.

Emmons' 7th graders have now run their conference winning streak to 65 consecutive games.

Mahar leads the team in all statistical categories but two. He is scoring 16 points per game, averaging 10 rebounds a game, and has 23 steals.

Mike Christiansen and Rod Steiskal share second place in scoring honors with six points a game.

IN AN exhibition game for reserves Friday night, the Raiders' second stringers defeated Antioch Upper Grade 27-15. Sixth-grader Brad Poulter led Emmons with 11 points and fifth-grader Stan Kuligowski chipped in 10.

Ken Klean, Clay Hamlin and Bryan Becker controlled the boards for the Raiders.

We already have enough coal lined up to last until 2020.

Nearly a billion tons of it. Enough to provide electricity until well into the next century, based on our projected fuel mix. We own much of it, waiting to mine it when we need it.

And we will need it. Because by the end of this century, the demand for electricity is expected to triple. Our coal will help meet that demand.

But it's also doing something else very important. It's helping conserve scarce fuels: oil and natural gas.

Over half of the electricity we make comes from coal and most of the rest comes from uranium. Both are abundant fuels. Last year these fuels provided us with energy equal to 100,000,000 barrels of oil.

Coal is one important reason we can call electricity the Conservation Energy. It's one way we can make sure there will always be enough electricity.

Sequoits see chance for victory

Grayslake plays here Friday night

Antioch High's basketball team will be seeking its first victory of the season Friday night, 8 o'clock, when it plays Grayslake's Rams in the friendly confines of the Antioch gym.

A win would put the Sequoits back into the Northwest Suburban conference race, following their 52-40 opening loss at Grant last weekend.

THE GAME AT GRANT was a defensive struggle, both teams using zone defenses throughout the game. Both the Sequoits and the Bulldogs had difficulty getting the ball inside to their big men.

The strong defensive play caused many turnovers, with Grant having 26 to Antioch's 21.

LOSING TO THE BULLDOGS was no disgrace for the Sequoits, since Grant is favored to win this year's conference championship.

However, Coach Roger Andrews expects his Antioch team to improve as it gains experience and, hopefully, wind up in the thick of things.

In last Friday's first quarter, Antioch had several chances to take the lead but poor shooting hurt. The Sequoits made only two of their first 16 field goal attempts.

The rest of the game was a fine defensive contest with tough, aggressive play that led to poor shooting by both teams.

"OUR DEFENSE WAS super," said coach Andrews. "The players really were outstanding on defense but, on offense, we need some work."

"These kids are really working hard," he added. "I am sure they are going to win many games before the season is over."

Antioch collected 27 rebounds to Grant's 26, but made only 29 percent of its 57 field goal attempts. Grant made 36 percent of its 50 shots.

Six-foot-four Kevin Dagnan scored 17 points for Grant while Roger Korjenek paced Antioch with 15 and Pete Ploss contributed 13.

"PLOSS HAS BEEN a real surprise, playing some great and consistent basketball," said coach Andrews.

Ploss made six of his 12 field goal attempts against Grant while Korjenek hit on six out of 16. Ploss led the team with nine rebounds.

Jayvees win, pick up experience

Antioch High School's junior varsity basketball team won its opening game of the season by defeating Grant 58-48.

Jayvee basketball consists of seniors and juniors who do not play regularly on the varsity level. The purpose of the games are to give valuable experience to the players and to prepare them for varsity games.

IN THE Grant game

Antioch was led by Nauman and Ranker with 17 and 10 points respectively. Coaches said Anderson did "a fine job of running the offense and also added three assists."

In rebounding, Nauman had eight and Selak three.

The next game for the junior varsity team is Saturday, 10 a.m., at Antioch High School.

ANTIOCH'S OWN "PISTOL PETE," a 6-foot-4 senior named Ploss, goes up for two points in last Friday's game at Grant. Ploss finished with 13 points and coach Roger Andrews said, "Pete has been a real surprise, playing some great and consistent basketball." (Andy Dugenske photo.)

Antioch sophs win 51-39 at Grant

The Antioch High School sophomore basketball team opened its conference season Friday night with a 51-39 victory over Grant.

The win evens the sophomores' overall record at 2 wins and 2 losses.

Neither team could generate much offense in the first half and the smaller, more aggressive Grant Bulldogs were down by only three points at half-time 27-24.

In the second half the Sequoits came alive at both ends of the court, sparked by the strong inside-work of John Ploss and Dee Maras.

With Ploss taking control at the offensive end, Antioch added steadily to the lead. The team defense, led by Gary Volling, Guy Abderholden, Pete Weber, Maras and Ploss, limited the Bulldogs to two field goals in the second half.

JOHN PLOSS led the Sequoit scoring with 20 points and also led the rebounding with 16.

Maras added 15 rebounds to give Antioch a commanding edge in that department. Tim Koesser drilled in 9 points for the Sequoits, with Weber and Maras each contributing 8 points.

ANTIOCH WILL host the Grayslake Rams this Friday night, with the sophomore game at 6:30 followed by the varsity game at 8 p.m.

Kakacek wins meet at 158 pounds

Former Antioch High School wrestler John Kakacek, now wrestling for the University of Illinois, won a title in the Illinois Invitational Tournament last weekend.

John, wrestling at 158 lbs., was Illinois' only champion in the meet which included 22 college wrestling teams from Illinois.

John scored an impressive 7-3 win in the finals over Russ Zintak of Southern Illinois University in the finals Saturday night.

Varsity wrestlers win 2 dual meets

The Antioch varsity wrestling team traveled to Aurora West Saturday to meet the host school, plus Wheaton-Warrenville and Downers Grove South in dual meet competition.

Antioch beat Aurora West 38-12, Wheaton-Warrenville 44-20, but fell to highly rated Downers Grove South 25-28.

ANTIOCH LED EARLY in all the meets but Downers' strength at the upper weights dominated as they tied the meet at 185 lbs., then in an exciting heavyweight match scored a close decision to win the meet.

Antioch's Glen McCollum, 98; Jon Gibson, 112; Jim Fasnacht, 126; and Marvin Gibson, 132, went undefeated through the three meets.

THIS WEEK the Sequoias open the conference season, traveling to Grayslake for a dual meet at 6:30 p.m. Friday.

Saturday, the wrestlers go to Buffalo Grove for a team tournament. Entered in the meet are East Leyden, the defending state champion, and H.L. Richards, last year's third place finisher.

The first session will be at 1 p.m., the semifinals at 3 p.m., and the championships at 6 p.m.

SUPER DEALS

New snow-hugging profile... traditional John Deere dependability and handling

It's low and lean, with scooped cowl, flowing lines, and upswept seat. It's the new breed of Deere — the exciting 1979 Trailfire. Trailfire is like no other sled that's ever worn the leaping deer decal. A super-low center of gravity provides buckled-down stability on hills and switchbacks. A low-alloy-steel chassis supplies plenty of strength, without all the weight. And a brand-new 340 or 440 cc engine sits closer to the tunnel for better performance in powder snow. Though Trailfire looks like none of its predecessors, it retains the best of John Deere sleds of yesteryear: CD ignition, adjustable slide-rail suspension, Mikuni carburetion, and disc brake are still parts of the overall package. And there's a new deep-padded seat and adjustable handlebar for extra riding comfort. Come in today and test-ride this exciting new breed of Deere.

guests might want to attend.

If someone else has already planned for Christmas Eve or New Year's Eve, pick an off-day or evening to hold

Avoid embarrassment . . .

Buy extra gifts for unexpected exchange

Receiving a gift from someone you'd left off your list is one of the most irksome and embarrassing things that can occur at Christmastime.

Be prepared

To avoid such eventualities, why not be prepared in advance, by stocking both your house and desk drawer with a few brightly wrapped packages to distribute to those you may have forgotten until the last moment?

Make your presents general enough to be enjoyed by both men and women or, if you prefer, make up separate packages for both, wrapped in distinctive paper to avoid confusion.

Tasty treats

Exotic foodstuffs are always good unisex gifts: preserves in a pretty, elaborate jar or candy imported from Europe. Honey and Dijon mustard in earthenware jars make excellent presents that can be enjoyed long after the contents of the jars have been used up.

Little desk ornaments make excellent presents for office-mates of both sexes.
So do popular books.

If you prefer to have two piles, one for each sex, both perfume and perfumed soap are good stand-bys for the women you know; cologne and/or after shave are always welcome presents for men.

Tops for tots

For your children's friends, or for the children of friends, neighbors and relatives, keep a few presents under the tree that can be distributed, for instance, when you've had an unexpected visit on Christmas Eve or morning.

Plushy animals are good for the youngest; small games that challenge the mind will be appreciated by those nearing adolescence.

Nice leftovers!

And, whatever little treats you stock up on, don't feel ashamed for calculating whether or not you can use or enjoy them, for there's no telling what may be left over after New Year's has passed.

*'Twas Christmas broach'd
the mightiest ale;
'Twas Christmas told the merriest tale.*

—Sir Walter Scott

Along the way with ANNIE MAE

Yes, it's a small world.

Charlie Cermak of Antioch, wintering in Florida, read in this column that Lloyd Pedersen, singer and entertainer from this community, was performing at the Vintage in Boynton Beach, Fla.

"We live only 12 miles north, so we got a group of our friends to hear him, plus have dinner," Charlie writes.

"I told Lloyd how I found out about him in your column and he was very happy to hear this and to see us.

"P.S. If you see my Dear Son Chuck, say Howdy Dool!"

Charlie always brightens our day when he includes at the top of his letter:

"Sunny temperature, 85 degrees; ocean temperature, 80 degrees."

VISITING FAMILY AND FRIENDS in Antioch are Mr. and Mrs. Paul L. Chase, now of Mesa, Ariz. They also are celebrating their anniversary while here.

Paul tells us that after 40 years Chase's service station at Channel Lake has been leased to the Thelen Sand & Gravel company, beginning Dec. 10.

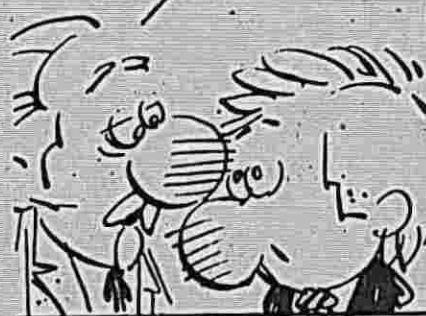

"No more repair work at the station," he said, "but the sale of merchandise and stocks are going on until the 10th."

ONE OF THE CUTEST gymnasts in town is performing every day in the window of BJ's Sports Center on Main Street. When you see him, you should recognize him ... at least, we're sure John Teresi will.
